This is a fabulous property with so much to offer; a great family home with possible development potential. As you walk through the impressive entry hall you will become aware of the spaciousness of this superb home, believed to have been built over 100 years ago.

Filled with "olde worlde" country charm, heaps of accommodation and character features, the home offers 5 large bedrooms plus a study/sunroom, 3 bathrooms, massive lounge and a separate formal dining room with an open fireplace. The kitchen with adjoining family room even has the original fuel stove intact, all adding to the ambience of this welcoming home.

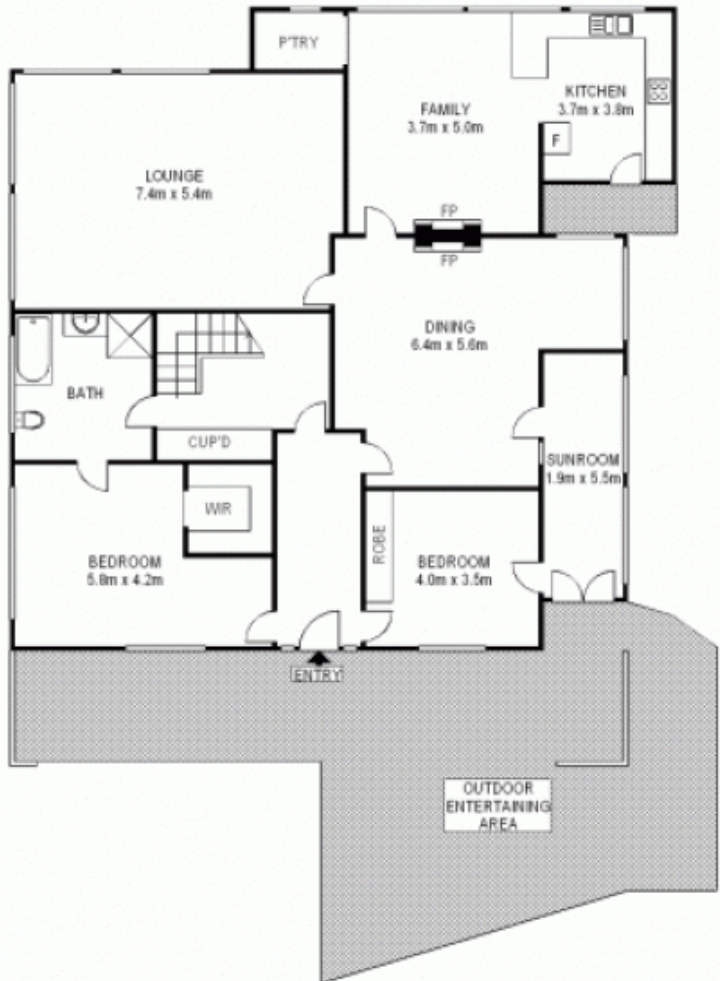

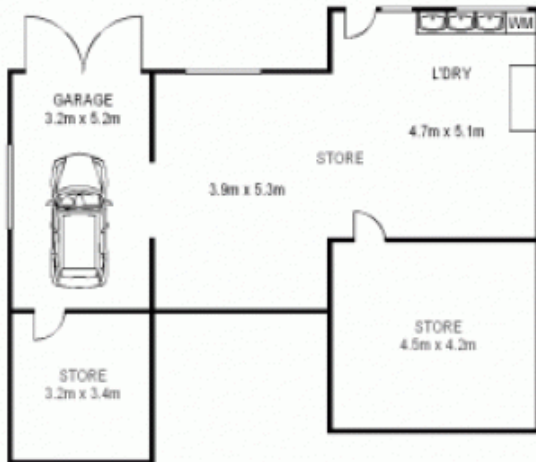

The ceilings are extremely high and picture rails are present throughout the main areas of the home. Under house storage is abundant along with the garage and a large double carport offers further car accommodation - there's also plenty of room to park a fleet of cars.

Price : $ 1,070,000
