This stylish and well located home represents an ideal opportunity to move into a renovated property, and plan to unlock the endless potential of the 905m² approx north facing block. Renovated with old world chic, the home offers three large bedrooms, beautiful polished timber floors, full brick construction, picture rails and ornate cornice around the high ceilings. The modern kitchen with stainless steel appliances, gas cooking and breakfast bar is the centre of the home, flowing into the living spaces and out through a bi fold servery window to the entertaining deck. The clever use of glass doors allows for the lounge/dining and family area to be opened up onto the entertaining deck that overlooks the picturesque rear lawn, ideal for the kids to play, veggie patches, a pool or granny flat STCA. All this within 600m of Thornleigh train station & Thornleigh Market Place. Pennant Hills centre is an easy walk or the option is there to enjoy the National Park at the
